Fyodor Dostoevsky. Everyone know his novels.

Nowdays he is very popular in a whole world

I would like to tell you about "Crime and punishment". This book is translated into all languages of the world.

The main character of the novel are student. His name is Raskolnikov. He was poor and he decided to kill the old woman and steal her money.

After that he was thinking about it all day long. Dostoevsky described it very well.

Raskolnikov thinks that only strong people should survive.

I like this novel very much. This book shows me how people can promote their ideology.

I would recommend this book to people who wants to start reading Russian literature. This novel are the one of the best Russian classical literature and can help you improve your speaking skills.

I am going to say a few words about book I have recently read.

The book is written by a famous russian writer Alexander Nikolayevich Ostrovskiy. The title of the book is "The founder story". It is a dramatic book.

The book describes a story about the family Kabanov. Katerina, the main character, from childhood lived surrounded by love and affection for her mother, but after she married Tikhon Kabanov, her life changed, became servitude. Then she falls in love with Boris Frigorievich - wild's nephew. Then Katerina, by her bright, refuses to her husband's treason, with his mother, after which the woman's life becomes completely unbearable. Very soon, Boris, on the orders of Diky, goes to Siberia, and Katerina commits suicide, rushing into the river.

I like this book because the author raises the problem of the relationship of fathers and children.

I particularly admire to read to you this book because

This summer I've read the book "The Captain's Daughter" which was written by the famous Russian writer of the 19th century Alexander Pushkin.

It is a novel about Emelian Pugachev's rebellion.

I liked this book from the very beginning.

The plot of the book is about the struggle between poor and rich people. The work tells of a rebel in which Pyotr Grinev was involuntarily took part.

I couldn't help feeling sad reading about the cat that was saved from the fire in the country house.

To cut a long story short, I think that this novel is about love, patriotism and real human feelings.

On the whole the book is really good. It is worth reading.
