Deary Colin,

Thank you for your letter. I was glad to hear ^{from} you. Well, we don't have^{an} Christmas tree, but we have such holiday as New Year and we buy a New Year tree at home. I decorate my New Year tree with my lights, boubles and ornaments. It's very fun.

I think the most popular presents with teenagers are gadgets, books, computers, sweet candies, headphones.

Well, we don't have Santa Claus, but we have Father Frost. Of course children write him letters.

Every year children find New Year presents under the tree in the morning on the 1-st of the January.

What do you want as a present for Christmas?

Well, I must go my friend is waiting for me.

With best wishes,
Natasha

Hi Colin,

Thanks you for your letter. Usually we put the Christmas tree. We decorate it with the whole family. Hang garlands and toys. Teenagers give each other sweets, postcards, nice clothes and toys, little children write letters to Santa Claus. They very love him. They are looking forward to his gift. On Christmas we like going to the skating rink, playing snowballs, sledging, walking in the street with friends and sleight snow. Gifts are usually under the Christmas tree. In the morning we happily open them. Merry Christmas!

All the best,

Alina

Dear Colin,

Thank you for your letter. You ask me how we celebrate Christmas. Every year I have a Christmas tree. We decorate the Christmas tree by bright balls, lights and tinsel. Teenagers in Russia usually want to get a tablet, phone and a computer. In my country, Santa Claus is called Father Frost. So, in our country the children write letters to Father Frost. They ask popular presents, but some children ask the most common presents. In our country presents are put under the tree. What do your plans for the holidays? Write soon!

Best wishes, Sofya
