I want to say a few words about the masterpiece of Russian Classics, "Peace and War". It is a novel written by Leo Tolstoy. This book is about the peaceful life of ordinary people and the frightening fights on the battlefield.

All the main characters of this book are amazing persons with difficult fates: Natasha Rostova, Andrei Bolkonskiy, Pierre Bezuhov. They struggle a lot, fall in love, face dangers. Also they are so realistic that you feel like you know them personally.

As for the plot of the book, it is exciting and unpredictable. Even the peaceful life is not that simple. Sometimes my breath was taken away by the plot.

Finally, I can say that "Peace and War" is totally worth reading. It would appeal you if you enjoy reading classic books. I liked it because it is very interesting and there are many things you should think about.

I am going to say a few words about the book I have recently read.

The book is written by a famous Russian writer Alexander Pushkin.

The title of the book is, "Captain's daughter".

It is an adventure book.

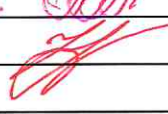

The plot of the book is incredibly interesting. It tells about young man Peter Grinyov, who was sent to Belogorich fortress to serve for a short military. One day he fell in love for captain's daughter Maria Mironova. And so she is. After that, on the fort the fortress was attacked by Emelyan Pugachev's army. They kidnapped Maria and the only man who can save her is Peter.

There are some great moments in the book, such as a duel between two officers. At the moment I couldn't help but reading with excitement.

All the things considered, the book is worth reading, it can be recommended to people who loves adventure.

I'm going to write a few words about story
I've recently read.

It's written by a famous Russian writer of XIX century, Nicolay Gogol.

The title of the book is "Taras Bulba"

It's a historical type of book.

The plot of the book is incredibly interesting.

The book tells us about one Ukranean family. The head of the family and both of his sons are warriors, so they must join army during the war. But one day, the youngest son fell in love with Poland girl, and because of that he decided to betray his army.

Sometimes, while reading it, I can't help myself of being sad.

To cut a long story short, the end of the book is very unhappy. Everyone dies, and it's really sad, but realistic.
So, if you like historical books, I'm sure you'll love
it.

~~It's review~~ I never like reading classical literature, it always seemed to me that it was very boring and difficult. But recently I read the book "Eugene Onegin" written by A.S. Pushkin and I like it. The book is about young man, who was very popular. He spend all his free time with rest, but his life changed, when he met Tatiana. Tatiana immediately fell in love with him, but Onegin didn't reciprocate her. After some time, he realized what mistake he had made, but it was too late. Tatiana has already married. I liked this book because it's very relevant and many important issues are raised in it. I would advise everyone to read it, as this is very interesting book, that's worth attention.
